Have fun playing a variety of sports and activities. Many that your child has participated in during their physical education activities. A staff of physical education teachers, coaches and players will provide a very organized program that emphasizes sportsmanship and fair play. Activities will be varied and the safety of your child is always a main theme of our program.

The schedule of activities will be age appropriate and include basketball, whiffleball, floor hockey, soccer, kickball, tag and flag football to name a few.

Slamma Jamma All-Sports Camps directed by Bob Ruderman (former Head Basketball Coach at Naugatuck Valley Community College and a member of the New England Basketball Hall of Fame) with a staff of college and high school coaches and players.
